

Academic Writing

The course objective is to enable non-native speakers of English to express themselves coherently in writing. It provides samples of academic writing and appropriate practice materials. The procedures of academic writing are practised, students are encouraged to discuss and compare some of their writing, and to draft and check their writing carefully through proofreading.

The course enhances students' ability to use English appropriately in writing for academic purposes. The course expands and practises the vocabulary, grammar and cohesive devices of Academic English.
