

English in Use (throughout the BA programme)

The course aims to help learners improve and refine the language skills they will need in real life; in social situations and in their work or studies. It focuses on productive and receptive skills, vocabulary, grammar, and cultural context; and challenges students to extend their proficiency levels further.