

Literature written in English in Other Countries

The course aims to introduce to students to the literature of Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Australia and New Zealand. It also tackles other literature written in English, especially that of India, Africa and the Caribbean Islands; as for Canadian literature, only English written works are analysed.